2. School Events and News –Teri Smith, Lindsey Hagen

- Basketball has started – Tues/Thurs. games -Practice on Wednesdays
- PRIDE groups and activities – K-5 in groups, adding the bulletin board with Paws.
- Field Trips – Grade 4 – Pioneer Village (it is like Heritage Park) – Pincher Creek date will be June 20, its mostly indoor so they will not be as affected by weather. Teachers would like to leave 10 minutes before school begins so that they will return before the end of school to eliminate added after school transportation. They will be able to do lots of hands-on activities like rope making and panning for gold.
- Winter Event – bring in stage for next year due to the lack of visibility, – 2 shows? Rent a space possibly VIA church or Park Meadows Church? Or maybe just renting the stage school division stage, the pros: everyone will be able to see. Cons: takes up space, there are no stairs to get on stage possibly a hazard.
- Magic Show Dec. 20 – Everyone enjoyed the show.
- Town Hall Meeting: Feb 6 from 630 to 830. allowing 2 grade 5 students to participate, 4 parents need to go. Jessica volunteered.
- Spreading the word with school council and you school community
- There is an open invitation to staff, parents, and community members to attend. Please spread the word in your school community.
- Please have everyone who is registering fill out the following form:
- https://lethbridgesd.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV_1I9i8Dq3jytSUhU
- Other – Hot lunch, is there value to giving hot lunch? Teachers to post list to class the day before to everyone knows what they are getting. Getting rid of donations. Taking the responsibilities from Lisa. Unfortunately, we will still need her to confirm school cash. But council can take over more responsibility like stickers and handing out the food.

3 Other Business to discuss. – Jess to get signing authority
