

Virtual Indigenous Celebration Week!

Let's celebrate Indigenous culture and National Indigenous Peoples Day coming up on June 21st. Explore, experience, and appreciate these Indigenous activities with your family and take some pictures! Send in your pictures to melanie.morrow@lethsd.ab.ca and be sure to include your child's name, grade, and school in the e-mail. The pictures will be shared with our Elementary School communities.

Learn and make your own Traditional Games.

Watch and learn the Métis Jig with Métis cultural leader Roy Pogorzelski.

Listen to the story, The Sharing Circle.
Look for a stick that speaks to you and take it home to make your very own talking stick.

Do you know what an Inukshuk is?
Go for a walk to find some rocks and make your very own Inukshuk.

Find out more about the Summer Solstice.
Make your own Sundial.

We're happy to acknowledge that the land on which we learn, play, and teach is Treaty 7 territory—the traditional territory of the Kainai, Piikani and Siksika as well as the Tsuu T'ina First Nation and Stoney Nakoda First Nation. We recognize the many First Nations, Métis and Inuit who walked these lands before us.